

MEDIA RELEASE

BREKKY CREEK KEG RACE

5 March 2009

Can former Miss World Australia Eva Milic defeat the brawn of a fire fighter? Can the navy uphold its reputation as the best on water? Can the Police outwit the might of the XXXX brewery team?

All these questions will be answered at the annual Breakfast Creek Hotel Keg Race from midday next Sunday (15 March) when teams from the Emergency Services, Armed Forces, Media and Sponsors battle it out on the Creek.

Teams of four will be required to build a raft from the materials provided and race along the creek to retrieve a keg and then transport it back to the hotel.

There will be four heats and a final to decide the Brekky Creek Keg Race champion.

According to Hotel Manager Sam Gullo, the early favourites, Queensland Fire and Rescue Service and the Navy, may face tougher competition than they anticipate.

"The Fire Fighters dominated the race last year, but I understand the Police team have been in training for months.

"As the defenders of Australia's coastline and surrounding waters we're expecting the Navy to be a clear winner but you can never underestimate the strength of the Army and Air Force," Mr Gullo said.

The media race is set to be one of the highlights of the day with the Nine Network's weekend News presenter Eva Milic captaining her team.

The Keg Race is again raising funds for Hannah's Foundation, a charity set up by Sergeant Andrew Plint and his wife Katherine following the death of their two year old daughter Hannah in their backyard pool in late 2007.

Police Commissioner Bob Atkinson will be in attendance and the Queensland Surf Life Savers will be patrolling the race to ensure competitors safely.

Kicking off at midday, the Keg Race is great afternoon at the Brekky Creek Hotel and everyone is welcome to come along and cheer on their favourite team.

The Brekky Creek Keg Race is proudly supported by 97.3FM, XXXX and Geocentric Outdoors.

For more information on the Keg Race please contact the hotel on 3262 5988.

-ends-

Amy Grindlay
Three Plus
3503 5700 | 0418 187 479

| | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| Emergency Services Race | Queensland Police Service vs Queensland Fire and Rescue Service vs Queensland Ambulance Service |
| Armed Forces Race | Air Force vs Army vs Navy |
| Media Race | Channel Seven vs Nine Network vs Network Ten |
| Sponsors Race | XXXX vs Breakfast Creek Hotel vs Team Hannah |

Editor Note: Eva Milic and representatives from the Emergency Services are available for a photo opportunity.